

Registration OPEN
queries to:
Dr. Joan McCarthy
inecc2018@ucc.ie

The School of Nursing and Midwifery
University College Cork

19th International Nursing Ethics
Conference
4th International Ethics in Care
Conference

Brookfield Health Sciences Complex
September 1-2, 2018

International Keynote Speakers include:

Prof. Hilde Lindemann

Prof. Marsha Fowler

Delegates from all over the world - Japan, US, Canada, Brazil, Norway, Finland, Germany, Australia, Tasmania – will present papers on ethical care, ethical dilemmas and professional practice

<http://inec2018.ucc.ie/>

Saturday 1 September

Prof. Hilde Lindemann, (US): nursing identities and counter stories of resistance

Professor Marsha Fowler (US) and Dr Mark Loughrey (IRE): nursing ethics history, conflict and trade unionism

Sunday 2 September

Prof. Ann Gallagher (UK), Prof. Anne Scott (IRE), and Dr. Anne-Marie Ryan (IRE): nursing values and professional education

Prof. Helen Kohlen (DEU) and Dr Louise Campbell (IRE): the role of nurses in clinical ethics committees and healthcare organisations

Parallel sessions:

Ethics in End-of-Life Care; Ethics in Clinical Practice; Feminist Ethics; Ethics and Dementia Care; Older Adult Ethics; Global Justice; Ethics and Professional Education; Ethics and Children; Matters of Conscience

International Human Rights and Nursing Awards Ceremony on Saturday in Brookfield to honour two nurses from Ireland and Switzerland in recognition of their outstanding commitment to human rights and their contribution to nursing professional practice.

Conference Gala Dinner in the Clayton Hotel with Irish music and dancing from 7pm